The Whos, Whats and Whys: About Annie & Tom

If you wake up bright and early for a little coffee, a bagel and morning dose of NBC's Today Show, you may have seen us (Annie and Tom) compete on the show's annual wedding competition in which couples from around the country battle it out to win a dream wedding aired live on TV. Over our past six years of happy coupledness, we've backpacked 22 countries, survived Lupus daily and shared a whole lotta laughs. We've survived two rounds so far and now it's down to three couples, so we will definitely need oodles of votes to win the opportunity to finally tie the knot in an amazing and crazy style.

Please take a quick second to vote both online and by texting "3" to 46833 before Monday Noon EST!
