
CRISTY AMES

1716 Branchwood Court Powder Springs, Georgia • 678-598-6412 • cristy.1221@gmail.com

Educator

Professional Experience

- Aug 2006 - Present Kindergarten Teacher
Cobb County School District
- Used professional knowledge and understanding of curriculum, subject content and the needs of students to facilitate students' learning and develop higher-level thinking skills.
 - Used common core, state and local district standards to develop effective daily lesson plans.
 - Developed lesson plans and implemented learning strategies to address the differentiated needs of all students.
 - Systematically used a variety of assessment instruments to gather and analyze data to measure students' progress to modify lessons and provide constructive feedback to students and parents.
 - Provided a safe, orderly and well-mannered environment conducive to optimal learning and encouraged respect, responsibility and independence.
 - Created an academic and student-centered environment where teaching and learning occurred at high levels and students were self-directed learners.
 - Continually worked in a professional manner by maintaining daily student records.
 - Participated in ongoing professional growth activities.
 - Communicated with students and parents in a timely manner instructional goals, expectations and students' progress.

Education

- September 2015 - May 2017 Ed. S in Instructional Technology
University of West Georgia, Carrollton, Georgia
Integrating technology into the classroom.
- Jan 2011 - May 2013 Master's Degree in Accomplished Teaching
Columbus State University, Columbus, Georgia
Obtaining professional development to enhance my career
- August 1988 - June 1993 Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education
Kennesaw State University, Kennesaw, Georgia
Undergraduate degree in Early Childhood Education

Skills

Core Credentials

- Creative Lesson Planning
- Technology Integration
- Assessment Tools
- Parent-Teacher Communication
- Classroom Management
- Organizational Skills

Certifications

April 16, 2004 - June 30, 2019, Georgia Educator Certificate
State of Georgia
Early Childhood Education P-5

Interest

My interests include reading, surfing the web and playing with my animals and spending quality time with my children.