
JOHN HAROLD BROWNE

• johnhbrowne1@yahoo.com

Summary

A talented athlete, John Harold Browne served as captain of the football team at John Carroll University. John Harold Browne was instrumental in the team's 1995 Ohio Athletic Conference Championship. Originally drafted out of high school to play baseball, John Harold Browne instead opted to go to college to play football and baseball. Through his own experiences with debt and economic hardship, John Harold Browne was inspired to launch The Financial Freedom Center. Located in Lake Worth, Florida, The Financial Freedom Center aims to help individuals settle their debt in an affordable and timely manner. As President, John Harold Browne manages a skilled team of agents and financial mentors who work closely with each client. With a recent 66.6 percent budget increase in The Financial Freedom Center's customer service division, John Harold Browne initiated the construction of an online service for clients to access their accounts. Due to its familiarity with the Fair Debt Collections Practices Act, The Financial Freedom Center holds the ability to minimize illegal harassment from creditors. The Financial Freedom Center strives to decrease any balances owed by a minimum of 50 percent. In addition to his professional endeavors, John Harold Browne also serves as Chairman of Consulting of Irish American, LLC. A dedicated patriot, John Harold Browne possesses a passion for U.S. history and supports multiple veterans' organizations. In addition, John Harold Browne is an accomplished outdoorsman, animal enthusiast, and self-defense instructor. Among John Harold Browne's favorite authors are Robert Ludlum, Brad Thor, and John Peck.

<http://bx.businessweek.com/profile/johnharold-browne/jbrowne425/>

<http://bigthink.com/johnharoldbrowne>

http://www.ziggs.com/public/John_Browne_161691

<http://johnharoldbrow.listal.com/>

President

The Financial Freedom Center

1993 - 1995

John Carroll University

